

'134 child labourers rescued by Gujarat govt in six months'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, NOVEMBER 4

IN THE last six months, 134 children working in commercial establishments were rescued in the raids carried out by the Gujarat government, according to an official release from the labour department.

During this period, six restaurants were also found for employing children. This includes Honest, Jalaram Khaman, Ambika Tea Stall and Navin Chavana Mart. They were fined Rs 25,000 each.

"The state government wants to end the practice of child labour, and has taken it up in a mission mode. We conducted a month-long special drive 'Sahiyaari Kooch' in June & July to crack down on child labour. The efforts are showing results as we have been able to rescue a large number of children. We have also registered FIRs against people employing children. We are also confident that our actions will deter people from employing children," Vipul Mittra, Additional Chief Secretary of Labour and Employment Department, said.

In August, The Indian Express had reported that a total of 1,269 children employed as child labour were rescued between 2013 and 2018. About 38 per cent of these children were rescued from Surat.

According to Mittra, a total of 434 raids were conducted between April and September 2019 and maximum children were rescued from Ahmedabad, Anand, Gandhinagar, Surat, Vadodara, Botad, and Bhavnagar.

Many of the children rescued in the last six months were employed in garages, zardozi units and textile industries.
