Vadodara: A 20-year-old priest at a temple in Tamboliyav village of Chhota Udepur allegedly committed suicide by hanging himself.

Vinay Saheb was found dead by another priest in his house, within the temple premises. While he has left no suicide note behind, the police claim that he was worried over his health issues.

"He has not left any suicide note behind and so it will be difficult to exactly ascertain why he took this extreme step. Another priest who worked here informed us that he was worried over his health issues for the last six months. He had kidney stones and the pain had apparently increased over the last 15 days. But he had not shared any such information with his family, so we cannot confirm," the police said.

A native of Jharkhand, Vinay moved to Chhota Udepur one and a half years ago. His body was handed over to his brother after post-mortem. A case of accidental death was registered at the Pavijetpur police station.

ENS
EXPRESS NEWSSERVICE

AHMEDABAD, NOVEMBER 4

INTHE last six months, 134 children working in commercial establishments were rescued in raids carried out by the Gujarat government, according to an official release from the labour department.

During this period, six restaurants were also fined for employing children. This includes Honest, Jalaram Khaman, Ambika Tea Stall and Navin Chavana Mart. They were fined Rs 25,000 each.

"The state government wants to end the practice of child labour, and has taken up in a mission mode," Vipul Mittra, Additional Chief Secretary of Labour and Employment Department, said.

In August, The Indian Express had reported that a total of 1,269 children employed as child labour were rescued between 2013 and 2018. About 38 per cent of these children were rescued from Surat.

According to Mittra, a total of 434 raids were conducted between April and September 2019 and maximum children were rescued from Ahmedabad, Anand, Gandhinagar, Surat, Vadodara, Botad and Bhavnagar.

Many of the children rescued were employed in garments, rice mills and textile industries.
